PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR ISSUANCE OF SUMMONS

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Christopher Prosser, by and through Counsel, Edwin V. Butler, and requests that summons be issued for all Defendant's, for the following reasons:

1. After initially agreeing to return waivers of service by Defendant's Counsel, Timothy Loose, Counsel began acting in bad faith and failed to file the agreed upon waivers.
2. Indeed, after discussing the matter with Defendants counsel, he conditioned settlement negotiations on Plaintiff's dismissal of all Defendants with the exception of the USHealth Advisor, LLC Defendants.
3. In good faith and effort to resolve the litigation and save the Court's resources, Plaintiff filed a motion dismissing all Defendants, with the exception of USHealth Advisors.

4. Defendant's counsel then refused to respond to emails, return myriad phone calls, or responded in bad faith, proffering excuse after excuse to delay any settlement negotiations, and delay and vex the course of the litigation, and ultimately brought the case to a point of dismissal for failure to obtain service.
5. Plaintiff therefore requests the Honorable Clerk of the Court issue the following summons so process can be perfected on the Defendants via express, certified mail, return receipt requested, and that all service fees be taxed against the Defendants:
